During a meeting earlier this year, the BACC voted to earmark City Manager Foster's annual $500 donation toward the purchase of nicer plaques for the permanent pieces in the exhibit, particularly those for which donations had been received (i.e., "The Bird") and possibly all the permanent pieces depending on whether there was money in the budget. Lauri French reported that Matt Modrack had asked her to research bronze plaques and their cost. She has done some preliminary investigation but needs input from the BACC regarding size, design, color, etc. before she can request quotes. Motion by Tim Cusick, seconded by Larry Lawrence, to appoint MJ Takagi to assist Lauri French in designing the plaques

9. Consider approval of John Sauve sculpture to replace “Dreieinigkeit” (formerly located outside Matt Modrack’s office window) for the 2011 Brighton Outdoor Sculpture Exhibit

John Sauve was present for a discussion about his replacement sculpture submission for “Dreieinigkeit”, for which he would receive a $1,000 stipend. There was discussion about the dimensions of the sculpture and the size of the cutouts. Some of the BACC members expressed concern about the sharp edges and corners of the proposed sculpture and its safety so near to the Imagination Station. John noted that one of the first sculptures in the exhibit by Charles McGee, which was installed in the same location as his proposed sculpture, also had sharp corners and to his knowledge, no one had been hurt in the two years it was on exhibit. John noted that he has a similar piece with “pure” circles (round, not geometric) that could be installed instead. Kris Tobbe volunteered to take a look at both pieces at John’s house. Motion by Larry Lawrence, seconded by MJ Takagi, to approve one of the John Sauve sculptures for exhibit in the 2011 Brighton Outdoor Sculpture Exhibit pending a review and recommendation by Kris Tobbe. Motion carried 3-1-1.

John also mentioned that the concrete pad in Hyne alley had been removed so he can’t replace “Sie Sind Hier” at that location.
